Truth: answer honestly. Dare: do it or skip your turn. Never have I ever: anyone who has done it raises a hand. Who's most likely: on three, everyone points at someone.

The elf die

Cut the outline, fold on the lines, glue the grey tabs. Roll it, then draw a card of the type it lands on.

Christmas Eve bingo

One grid per team. Tick a box when it happens. First full row: that team picks the next dare.

#1

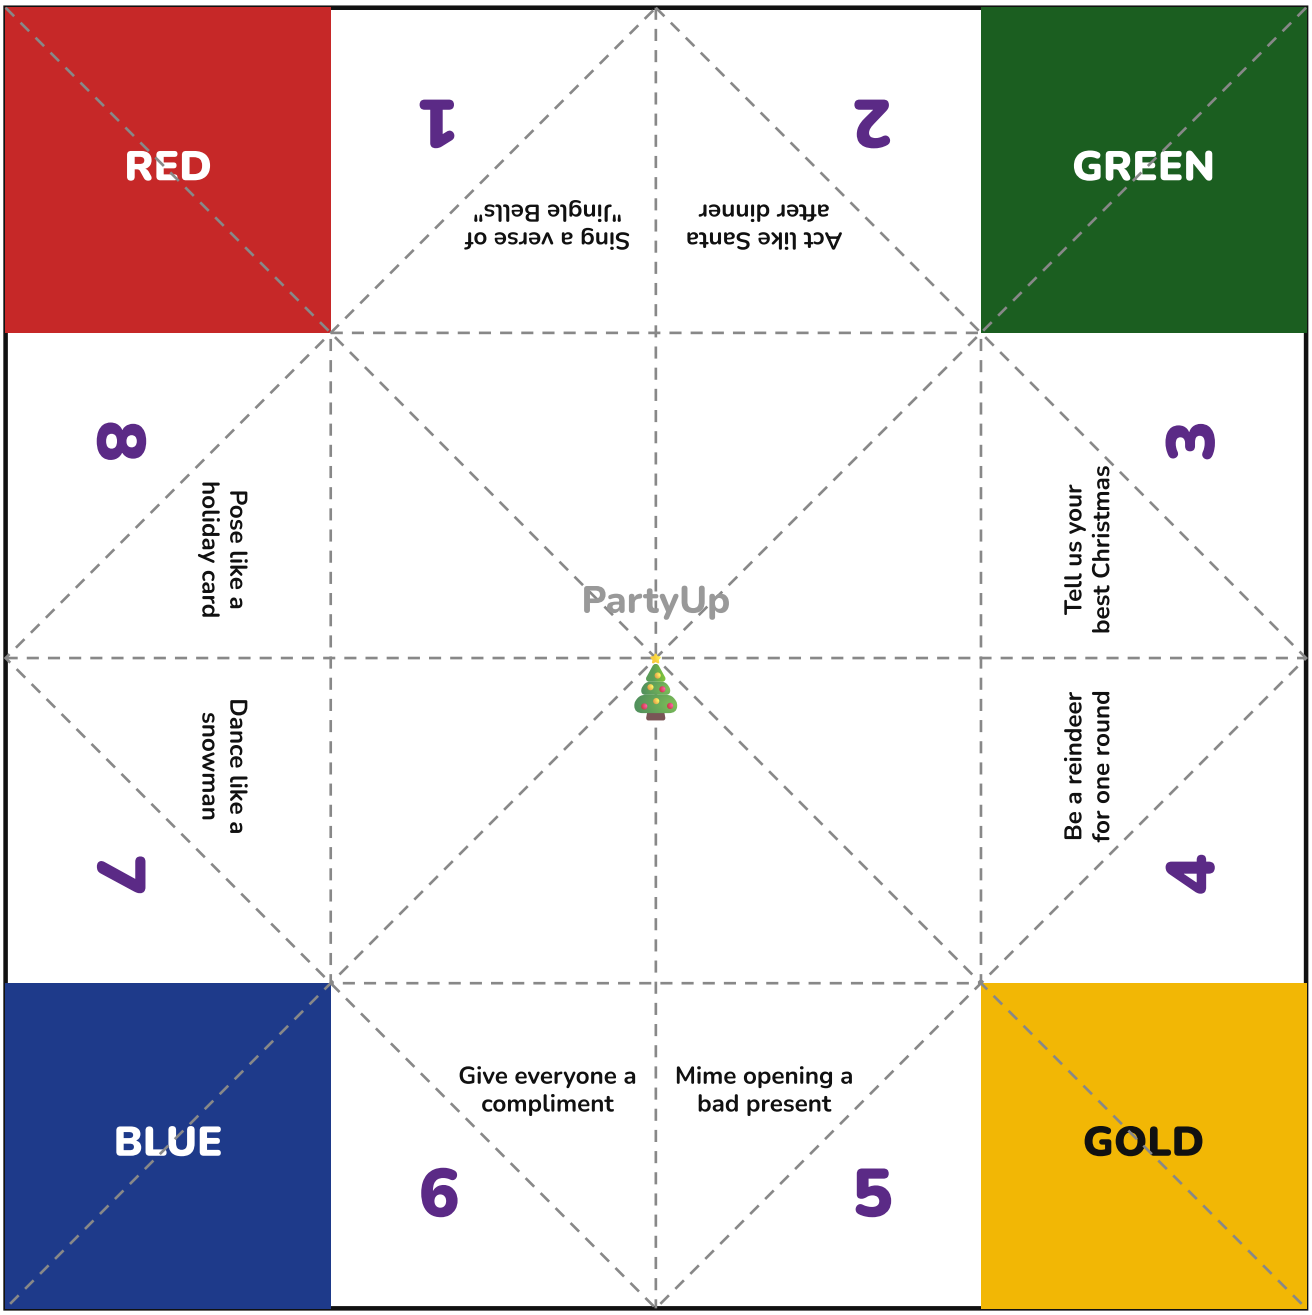

A string of lights stops working	An ornament falls off the tree	Someone falls asleep on the couch	Someone tells a childhood story
Someone sings off-key, loudly	Someone talks about the weather	Someone says "is it over already?"	Someone wears a Santa hat
Someone saves wrapping paper "for next year"	Someone has seconds of dessert	Someone takes a photo of the tree	Someone has eaten too much chocolate
Someone says "you shouldn't have"	A Christmas movie everyone has seen ten times	Nobody can find the tape	Someone says "next year, let's keep it simple"

#2

A string of lights stops working	Someone wears a Santa hat	A present gets opened too early	The same Christmas song plays for the third time
Someone is wearing a Christmas sweater	Someone tells a childhood story	Someone talks about the weather	A Christmas movie everyone has seen ten times
Someone falls asleep on the couch	Someone sings off-key, loudly	Someone has eaten too much chocolate	Someone saves wrapping paper "for next year"
Someone has seconds of dessert	Someone says "is it over already?"	An ornament falls off the tree	Two people give the same present

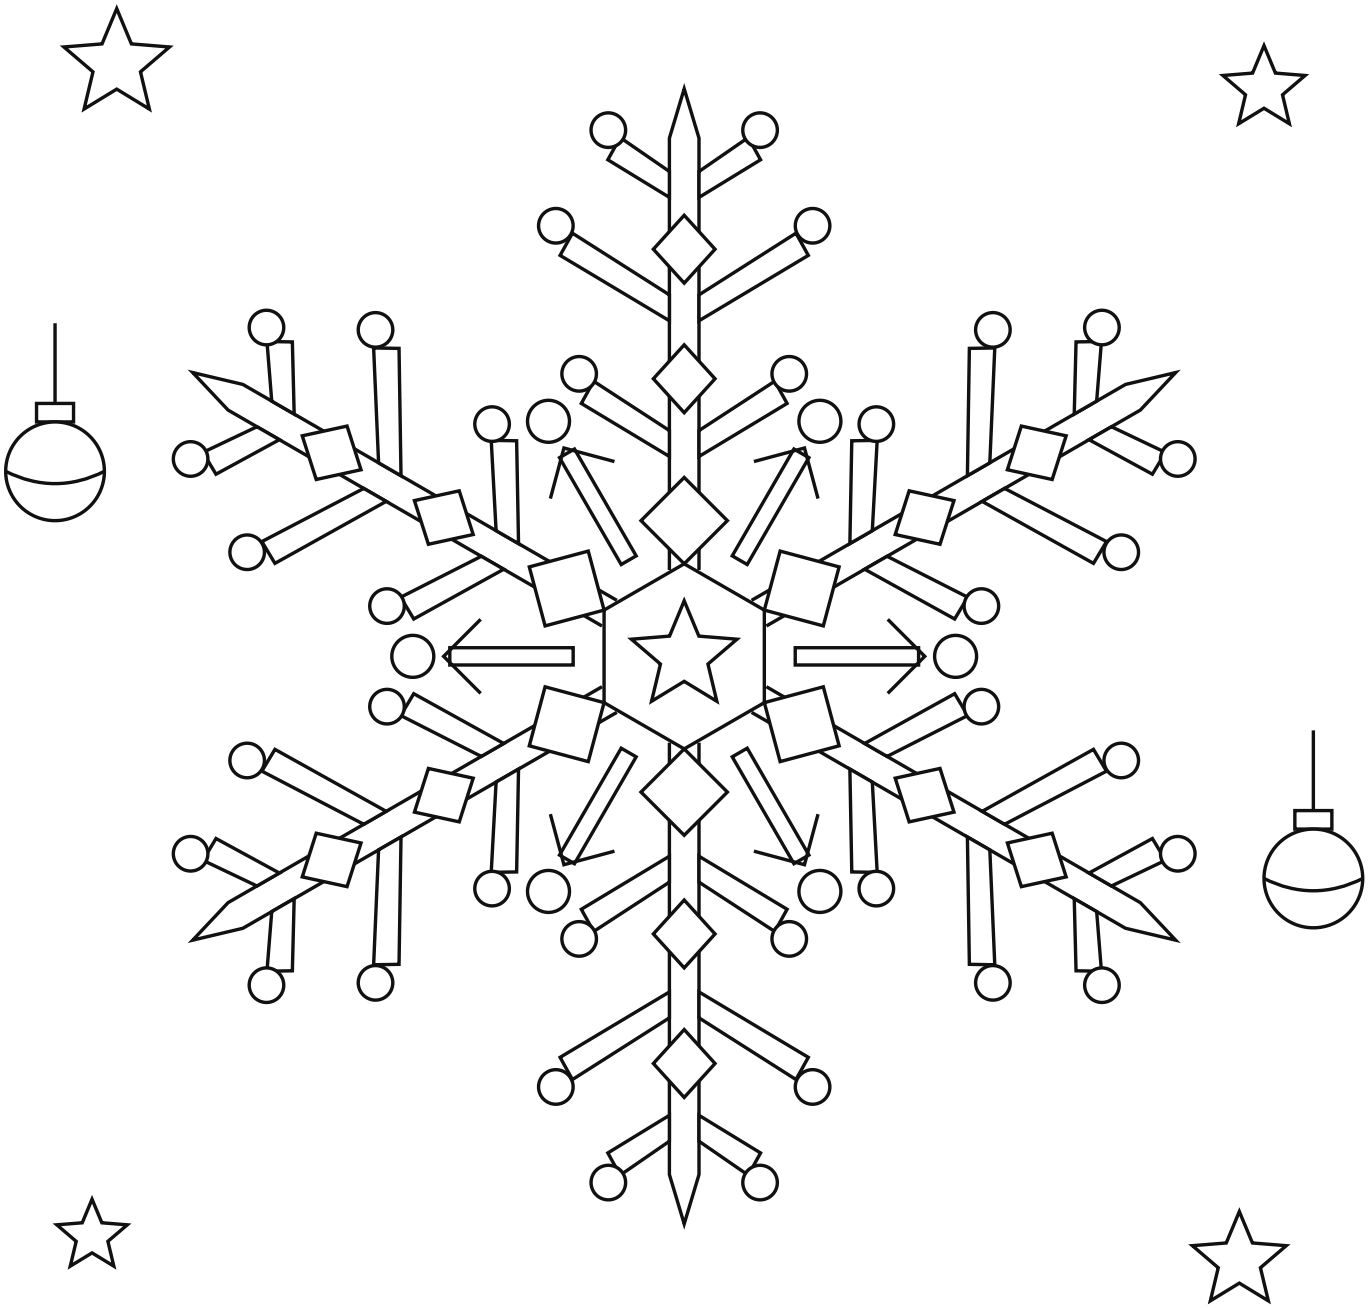

The dare fortune teller

1. Cut out the big square.
2. Printed side down, fold the 4 corners into the center.
3. Flip it over, fold the 4 new corners into the center.
4. Fold in half, slide your thumbs and index fingers under the 4 colors.
5. A player picks a color, spell it while opening the fortune teller, then a number, and read the dare hidden underneath.

Coloring: the snowflake

Fine markers work best. No two snowflakes are alike, and yours won't be either.

Spiced hot chocolate (alcohol-free)

Makes 6 mugs

- 1 L (4 cups) milk, or a plant-based drink
- 200 g (7 oz) dark chocolate
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cinnamon stick and a pinch of nutmeg
- Whipped cream and mini marshmallows, for the top

1. Warm the milk with the cinnamon stick, without boiling it.
2. Off the heat, add the chocolate in pieces and whisk until it melts.
3. Add the sugar and nutmeg, then remove the cinnamon.
4. Serve hot, with whipped cream and marshmallows.

Tip: use a candy cane as a spoon. It melts slowly and flavors the mug.
